1. A designated area is provided for Entertainers free of vendor fees. Entertainers may collect tips, but there is no compensation provided by the market. Entertainers are allowed to have their own music available for purchase.
2. You must notify the Market Manager at 563-588-4400 if you will not be setting up on your assigned day by noon the Wednesday before your assigned Saturday. Any entertainer failing to appear or call will not be rescheduled for the rest of the season.
3. Market hours are from 7:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. (May – September), 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. (October), rain or shine. Entertainers can arrive to market after 6:30 a.m. (May – September) / 7:30 a.m. (October) they must walk their equipment into market. Please have your area cleaned up by 12:30 p.m., as this is when the street is re-opened to traffic. Take any and all trash and/or recycling items with you.
4. You need to provide your own tables, chairs, display, signage, electrical cords, and/or canopy. If it's windy, you will likely need weights to hold the canopy legs down.
5. If you park in a metered parking stall outside of the barricaded area, please be sure to pay the appropriate fee, as the City does enforce meters on Saturday mornings.
6. We limit entertainer's attendance to two dates per year to ensure all interested entertainers can participate. However, there is potential for you to be selected in the event that one of our scheduled entertainers cancels.
7. The Market Manager and Farmers' Market Committee will have final approval on all issues. We want everyone's experience to be fun and educational.
